

JESSICA PEDEMONT

Chocolate Artisan

www.chocolateartisan.com.au

Jess has been working as a professional chef for more than 20 years. Besides family (she's a new Mum), her passions include pastry, chocolate and sugar craft.

She started her career as a scholarship winner, representing Australia and competing in both local and international competitions.

She's travelled the world working, studying and teaching with some of the very best in the industry. As a recipient of numerous distinctions and awards, she continues to strive for excellence in all culinary endeavours.

Jess started Chocolate Artisan in 2008. Her services expand far beyond chocolate and include workshops, masterclasses, demonstrations, consultation, online tutorials, bespoke cakes, sweets, decorations and desserts.

From age old traditions to cutting edge trends, Jess enjoys drawing from the whole spectrum of culinary history, pushing boundaries to deliver a highly personal experience for her clients.

Concentrating on ethically sourced ingredients, Jess has recently taught tree to bar chocolate making, working directly with farmers. She also writes for various industry magazines, has her own line of accessories and teaches at her Sydney-based cooking school.
