

MOLLY ROBBINS

Molly Robbins has been making cakes for the past 6 years.

Trained as a special effects makeup artist, she is synonymous for her sculpted, realistic animal designs that have won her 3 Gold medals at Cake International.

She is an airbrush specialist and always likes to inject humour and fun into her pieces wherever possible, as well as making realistic textures and colours.

Molly is best known for her work in hit Channel 4 series Extreme Cake Makers, where she can be seen making anything from a life-size cow to a meat and potato pie, all edible and made entirely of cake!

She has also appeared in BBC series including Blue Peter and How to be Epic at Everything.

Extreme cake makers is due to return to screens for two more series from September.
